

almost all hours of the day. The jet planes that fly overhead produce noise of even greater loudness and intensity. And if we live in industrial areas which are growing with every passing year, there is the deafening noise produced by loud speakers in houses or shops, radio sets in the neighbourhood, school children at play or at chorus practice of arithmetical tables, and so on.

Or

- (b) Read the following passage and answer the questions given below.

On the first day, I should want to see the people whose kindness and gentleness and companionship have made my life worth living. First I should like to gaze long upon the face of my dear teacher, Mrs. Anne Sullivan who came to me when I was a child and opened the outer world to me. I should like to see in her eyes the strength of character which has enabled her to stand firm in the face of difficulties. I can only see through my finger tips the outline of a face.

- (i) What does Helen Keller want on the first day?
(ii) Who is Anne Sullivan?
(iii) Who did open the outer world to Helen?
(iv) What does Helen find in her teacher's eyes?
(v) What does she want to 'see' through her finger tips?
