CALL FOR PAPERS

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

Greetings!

Chevalier T Thomas Elizabeth College for Women was established in the year 1985 under the C.T.T.E. Trust. This college has the distinction of being the first Self-financing College under the University of Madras and has rendered exceptional service to the cause of women's higher education in North Chennai.

The Vision of the College is to empower women through education, ethics and economic development.

The Mission is to empower women by

- Providing the right academic atmosphere with the best resources to pursue & gain knowledge.
- Providing opportunities to develop employability skills.
- Inculcating values rooted in our culture & tradition, secularism and humanitarianism.

In accordance with the Vision and the Mission of the late Founders of this Institution, our College continues to promote empowerment for women through education with a right academic atmosphere.

Our institution provides opportunities to develop students' employability skills, leadership skills, organizational skills, interpersonal skills in addition to all other required skills for the upliftment of students; besides inculcating in them the ethics and values rooted in our culture and tradition. Activating all aspects of the learner's personality for a more comprehensive and holistic development.
