Annual Report – 2022- 2023

Introduction

Good evening all and welcome to our college day.

It is a pleasant and warm evening and let us thank Almighty God for enabling us to assemble here after the years of the pandemic-we have understood the value of every life on earth.

Today I stand in front of top academicians, scholars, administrators - men and women with a passion for social justice - people who want to contribute to the society, country and world at large. We are here to think and plan for the upliftment of people, for the sustainability of the resources of the universe, for inculcating values of self discipline and simplicity in our students, for teaching them to be grateful to this earth - one mother who has been nourishing us for thousands of years.

Most respected honourable Justice Thiru B Gokuldas, our Chairman, most respected Thiru L Palamalai, IAS our managing Trustee and Correspondent, most respected Dr. R Srinivasan, Member Secretary, TamilNadu State Council for Science and Technology, dear Sugandh Priya, Director, Product at Temenos, dear Ragavaditya representing Birla Foundation and Smile Foundation, respected School Principals, respected Trustees of CTTE Trust, respected former Principal of CTTE College, respected NGOs, members from industries, Corporates, Press, dear teachers, students and parents, it is a privilege for me to present unto you a very brief report of our college initiatives in half-an-hour. The actual report runs for 200 pages, and I have submitted hard copies to the honourable dignitaries on the dais. The soft copy of the report will be sent to all the academicians by the college by tomorrow.

Respected guests, and parents, let me briefly introduce you to the prestigious CTTE Trust that runs schools and College in TamilNadu and Kerala. In 1964 our Founder T Thomas from Kottayam, Kerala founded the elite St.Mary's School in Perambur. Along with his wife Mrs. Elizabeth he continued to open more schools and in 1974 the T. Thomas Educational Trust was established. In 1985, after the demise of Mr. Thomas, the Secretary and Correspondent of the Trust, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas started Chevalier T Thomas Elizabeth College for Women. In 2002, the Trust became a public Trust and the government appointed the most honourable Justice Thiru J Kanakaraj – a man with a high sense of morality and social justice and a fine sense of the law – as the Chairman of CTTE Trust. In turn he chose Thiru L Palamalai – a man with a vision for his state and country, a shrewd eye for details and utmost integrity combined with kindness – to be the Managing Trustee and Correspondent. That was a paradigm shift. The schools and the college were now reinvented with an emphasis for knowledge resources and digital infrastructure. He modernised the approach to education emphasising on the concept of liberal mindedness and creating a student-centric and knowledge driven college campus.

The college expanded gradually with new buildings, a library with 30,000 books, e-resource centre, e-journals, 3 sophisticated computer labs with 200 computes, free wi-fi in all labs and departments for all students and teachers. If a student writes a letter to the college librarian requesting to buy a particular reference book- we buy it. Similarly, teacher who are delving into specialisation also come with book requests and these requests are honoured. CTTE is a place where students grow intellectually, emotionally and socially. We insist on lesson plans for teachers that reflect the principles of NEP2020 and our classrooms are places where teaching goes beyond the syllabus and curriculum. The college is particular that students and teachers converse in English – to make sure the environment supports our students in a globalised economy. Students have a number of clubs and councils and centres and cells to enrol themselves and groom themselves in leadership strategies and skills. Frequent leadership training is given to them – as women emerging as leaders without becoming arrogant and shallow with overconfidence – but with humility and simplicity is the core value of CTTE - emphasised by our Founders, Chairman and Managing Trustee and Correspondent. The woman leader from CTTE is constantly reminded to dress with dignity, speak with courtesy, show humility and use the library as much as possible – and not to lose her in the digital and internet revolution. The college puts these human values before her academic achievements – as strongly believe that a woman of high knowledge, simplicity and empathy with a hardworking nature will build her family, society and nation. To achieve this apart from her readings she also requires technical skills. We have programmes like TETL, and TSDC that take care of these requirements. CFSD trains students in entrepreneurship and our students are walking into these new fields with ease.

When the world at large is moving towards self-paced learning, we still strongly believe in teacher-centric teaching methodology. Our teachers instil values, discuss current affairs and policies and the college classroom in CTTE is a place where knowledge, training and values meet. We are very proud of our mentoring system – our class teachers – the backbone of CTTE – know every detail of their students – mentor and guide them on campus and off campus – and this is a unique feature of CTTE. Our linkage with companies is very strong. For example TEMENOS already is training our students in Banking Technology – the program is free. Similarly, HCL has planned an initiative of training and employment. Birla Soft has already begun its training. All these are free programmes.

Though CTTE aims at creating career women, we do not compel students to register for placement. Training is free and mandatory – but students are free to choose or reject jobs. We believe women should be given the freedom to take up a career or not. Our values are eco-centric and CTTE Trust maintains 14 acres of land with trees freshly planted and we are ahead in implementing the core values of sustainable development and ecological balance to conserve earth and take care of its energies. We have tied up with BHUMI Trust for this important work.

The world economic order has been troubled by the pandemic. Our society is in need of support – financially and morally. CTTE strives to take care of both. Our scholarship committee is very active – we have named it after our former Chairman – it is called Justice J Kanakaraj Support Scheme – with the grace of God and with the support of TEMENOS, Birla Soft, Tech Mahindra, and especially Shine Trust, and other 75 organisations, we have been able to support quite a number of students. I have been touched by the care and love of these organisations in lending a hand to our students. I am very proud of their commitment to society and I must make a mention of both our guests of honour on the dais – young minds with a fierce passion to serve society.

Ladies and gentlemen, let me be a little subjective and give a special word of appreciation to our dear Sugandh Priya – my student – I have been her English teacher. It is a great honour to me and the College to put her on this prestigious dais – as she has emerged as one of the top ten digital banking excerpts in the country and in a typical CTTE style, has directed TEMENOS more into supporting society especially in the field of education. I want to encourage Sugandh Priya and Ragavaditya as I see in them the future India. To me they appear as builders of our nation.

I also want to take your attention to a senior scholar – Dr. Srinivasan, who has initiated a great scientific movement in TamilNadu. The seeds his initiatives have sown in schools and colleges – seeds that will grow into mighty trees as scientist and innovators – seeds that will sustain India's development and progress – I am personally inspired by his voluminous work and focused and deliberate academic research, societal development and sincere efforts to uplift all types of students from all types of environment.

CTTE is indeed very proud to associate and link with these eminent social thinkers. The administrators and academicians on the dais and off the dais, NGOs involved in human development- Let me assure you that CTTE walks with you in our cause for upliftment of society.

At this beautiful moment, I would like to pay my respects and request your respects too, for a great scholar and academician Dr. Meenakshi, Head of the Department of Physics and Vice-Principal of the College – more than 35 years of teaching- more than 17 years of administration. I take this opportunity to thank her inimitable commitment to CTTE and loyalty to her students. She is an erudite scholar and has been in various Academic Boards of different Colleges in her career.
